

With COVID-19 Emergencies Ending, Cigna Healthcare Announces Standard Coverage Effective May 12

The federal government announced in January that both national emergencies addressing COVID-19 will end on May 11, 2023.

Today, we communicated with clients that Cigna Healthcare standard plan coverage* will be reinstated, effective May 12, 2023, when medical and pharmacy plans are no longer subject to federal coverage requirements for COVID-19 testing, vaccinations, and treatment.

eCards distributed to clients today:

- ASO integrated pharmacy and medical plan clients
- ASO standalone medical plan clients
- Insured pharmacy and medical plan clients

Coverage overview included in client eCards:

- ASO Pharmacy and Medical Plan Standard Coverage
- Insured Pharmacy and Medical Plan Standard Coverage

Thank you for your continued partnership allowing Cigna Healthcare to help improve the health and vitality of your clients and their employees. If you have any questions, please contact your Cigna Healthcare representative.

* Certain state COVID-19 requirements may have expiration dates that are not tied to the end of the federal emergencies. Cigna Healthcare will follow all federal and state mandates, as required. Administrative Services-Only (ASO), also known as self-funded plans, may elect to make coverages different from standard coverage. Please contact your account team by April 14, 2023.
